KILOHANA BLDG. BIBLE CLASS FOR BUSY FOLK IN MCGREW ESTATE

(By a Local Pastor.)

Some one has said, "What gets your attention gets you." This is sound psychology. It is just as true in regard to the religious life as it is with any other human interest.
Many people will say when asked to join a Bible class: "Oh, I don't know. Somehow I have never been able to get very much interested in the Bible." These people are honest enough but they don't stop to ask themselves why it is true. The reason is not hard to find. They have never given the Bible a chance at them. They have not paid enough attention to the study of the records contained in the Bible to get interested.

Now the Sunday morning Bible class at the Kilohana building is for busy people who feel the need of a better acquaintance with the teachings of the Bible but who can find no time during the week to devote to the study.

The fact that last year over a hundred young men and young women enrolled in this class is evidence enough that the work which is being done in that class is filling a real need in these people's lives. Yes and it proves that the Bible can be made interesting when properly taught.

The class begins tomorrow a series of lessons on the parables of Jesus.
Some of the best teaching, the most vital truths uttered by Jesus are found in these pictured stories. These lessons cannot fail being intensely interesting.

The class meets at 10 o'clock. It is open to all young men and women.
No matter what your religious belief you are welcome.

One Play.

"I wonder if aviators can play football."
"What makes you say such a foolish thing?"
"I don't think it is foolish. They ought to know all about the flying wedge."

TERRITORY AFTER INHERITANCE TAX

Should the territory succeed in collecting an inheritance tax from the beneficiaries of the late Dr. John S.
McGrew it will recover a tax on a total of $196,107, as this is the total value placed on the estate by R. R.
Reidford, the appraiser recently appointed by Judge Whitney. The estate consists of $122,953 in real estate and $73,155 in personal property. The heirs are Mrs. C. B. Cooper, wife of Dr. Cooper, of Honolulu, and John Tarn McGrew, the artist now residing at Paris, France.

There is some question whether the territory is entitled to an inheritance tax of any kind, and this is to be determined by litigation, which already has been started, in Circuit Judge Whitney's court, Assistant Attorney general A. G. Smith representing the territory, and the firm of Smith, Warren, Hemmway & Sutton representing the estate, which at present is held in trust by the Trent Trust Company.

It appears that on June 10, 1911, McGrew placed his entire property in the hands of the trust company under a deed of trust which gave it all to his heirs. He retained a life interest, which amounted, the territory avers, to the entire income and such other profits as accrued from the estate.
After his death, which occurred November 17, 1911, the trust company, representing the beneficiaries, assert the reversion of the estate to the heirs because it was transferred by title to them long before McGrew died.
The territory sets up the claim that as the possession and full enjoyment of the property did not go to them until McGrew's demise, it is in effect and in fact an inheritance, and subject to the inheritance tax law.

One of the interesting items in Appraiser Reidford's report is that the value of 1650 shares of stock in the McBryde Sugar Company, held by the McGrew estate, is fixed at $6.50 a share, or a total of $10,625. The present market quotation of McBryde sugar stock is $1.75 per share. If the territory is conceded the right by the court to assess the inheritance tax Reidford's figures, even though the stock is not worth that much by many thousand dollars. The point in this is that the appraisement, for the purpose of the inheritance taxation, is of the date of McGrew's death. When he died, McBryde Sugar Company stock was worth $6.50 a share.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save your hair! Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderuff right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.
There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderuff tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair.
Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderuff from any drug store, or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.
